

Love British Food!

Putting the "000" Back into Food

 Send to a friend

 Printer version

KENWOOD
MAKING GREAT FOOD SIMPLE

Win a 500g truckle of Dorset Blue

Vinney by emailing us the correct answer to the following question:

What traditionally accompanies leek in soup?

- a) potato
- b) pear
- c) tomato

The first correct answer received wins!

To advertise on this e-newsletter please call 020 7840 9292 or to email us: click here

Welcome to our December 2008 e-newsletter...

1. Supermarket Watch

Bringing you all the latest news on British products in the supermarkets. ...Read more

2. Inspiring school of the month

Hawarden High School in Flintshire has been announced as the winners of British Food Fortnight's 'Cook for Life' Challenge 2008, sponsored by Kenwood, in which schools were challenged to design and cook a meal using the minimum number of food miles...Read more

3. Producer of the month

Enthusiastic and entrepreneurial, Emily Davies, founder of The Dorset Blue Soup Company, is looking forward to the New Year and instigating more innovative ideas. From its inception in 2003, The Dorset Blue Soup Company has grown from being a one woman operation to employing six and hand-making more than 30,000 litres of soup a year....Read more

4. Go wild this Christmas!

Make your Christmas a truly wild one with British game. Forget the fowl and grab some small game birds such as woodcock, partridge, pheasant, wild duck, pigeon or snipe from your local butcher or supermarket and place them in the middle of the table alongside cranberry jelly, bread sauce and all the usual trimmings...Read more

Boost your iron levels in the build-up to Christmas with British wild venison. It is high in protein, low in saturated fatty acids and contains higher levels of iron and fewer calories than other red meats.

 THE NATIONAL TRUST

Having trouble reading this e-mail view our on-line version.

Having trouble printing this e-mail try our printer friendly version.

Send this Love British Food e-newsletter to a friend.

Unsubscribe from future Love British Food e-newsletters.